

I do not want the Federal Do Not Call law to override the Wisconsin State Do Not Call law. In fact, I wish it also covered all charitable organizations. I get so frustrated with the phone calls, that I have started only contributing to those which send me something through the mail.